

Culture 1 - Out-going

1. You are over the top out-going and a glad hander
2. You don't have any personal space and you are too close to the person when talking to them
3. Everything is happy and exciting. You are the life of the party and you want others to join you.
4. You want to share your enthusiasm for life with everyone. God is a party.

Culture 2 – Extremely Reserve

1. You are quiet and very shy. Starting up and carrying on a conversation is painful. You don't like to talk at all.
2. You withdraw from people and like to hide in a corner. If someone approaches you it's awkward. You don't know if God is real.
3. You keep things to yourself and you don't share feelings or anything. You hoard your belongings.
4. You feel insecure and you want to hold on to materials things. Sharing with others is tough.

Culture 3 – Destitute & Angry

1. You have absolutely no possessions as you are completely penniless.
2. Life has thrown you a curveball in every wrong direction. Life and God are not fair.
3. You are bitter toward the world. Why is everyone else in a better position than you?
4. You don't trust anyone and you are on guard all the time. Street smarts are essential.

Culture 4 – Life is Good

1. You are happy go lucky and carefree. Nothing in the world concerns you.
2. You are numb to the world events and surroundings as you don't have any communication to the world around you. You grow and raise all of your food.
3. Family is important to you. Your entire family lives in your 2-bedroom house including relatives.
4. You smile a lot and avoid confrontations. You love God.